MR. DAILEY'S FAMILY & CONSUMER SCIENCES PROGRAM

Cluster: Human Services

Program: Food, Wellness, and Dietetics

*No pre-requisites are required for this program.

Alabama Dieticians: $48,230 yearly medium salary

Program Overview: This program is centered on students who have an interest in pursuing careers in nutrition, wellness, and health and disease prevention. Courses provide students with knowledge in event planning, photographic styling applications, social media and digital design techniques, developing and adapting food products for marketing and specific nutrition needs, meal planning, food safety, and the scientific investigation of production, processing, preparation, evaluation, and utilization of food.

Courses (Fall):

2nd Block: Food Innovations and Media (510016)

3rd Block: Event Planning (500015)

4th Block: Sports Nutrition (510017)

Courses (Spring):

2nd Block: Food Innovations and Media (510016)

3rd Block: Event Planning (500015)

4th Block: Sports Nutrition (510017)

Student Credentials Offered:

- ServSafe Food Handler Certification
- ServSafe Manager Certification
- ServSafe Instructor Certification

Course Descriptions:

*Event Planning: Students will plan and organize all aspects of social events including the food, location, and décor. Students will learn how to prepare and serve foods on a mass scale.

*Sports nutrition: Students will learn how to choose, prepare, and evaluate foods for peak performance of athletes.

*Food innovations and Media: Students will develop new food products that meets marketing and nutritional trends through the use of social media, digital design techniques, and photographic styling applications.