

PREPOSITIONS & PREPOSITIONAL PHRASES FREEBIE

anchor charts, SCOOT, & printable

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.L.4.1.E

@Tickled Tennessee Teachin'

What is the preposition?

We can play games and swim in the pool.

What is the prepositional phrase?

Ella put the iPad under her desk.

What is the preposition?

There will be cake with strawberry icing.

What is the prepositional phrase?

I haven't seen snow since last year.

What is the preposition?

The birthday party is from 2 till 5 p.m.

What is the prepositional phrase?

I hope it is warm and sunny on Saturday morning.

What is the preposition?

Max was between the two girls.

What is the prepositional phrase?

You have to clean up before you go outside.

What is the preposition?

You will know most of the people there.

What is the prepositional phrase?

She drank the bottle of orange juice from the refrigerator.

10

What is the preposition?

Cara was leaning against the wall when she almost fell.

11

What is the prepositional phrase?

My mom took a walk around the block.

12

What is the preposition?

Jackson jumped over the bushes to catch the cat.

13

What is the prepositional phrase?

The pen fell between our desks.

14

What is the preposition?

I looked under my bed for the missing shoe.

15

What is the prepositional phrase?

Emily was outside during the reward program.

16

What is the preposition?

It was upon her arrival that the dog went missing.

17

What is the prepositional phrase?

I made those chocolate chip cookies by hand.

18

PREPOSITIONS

Prepositions are words that show relationships, such as a point in time, to tell about direction, or to show where something is.

up
in before
onto during from since inside
upon

past
over beneath near above
under
until toward through

among beside between by across against around within without

The girl had an apple
on her head.

PREPOSITIONAL phrases

a prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition

The boy
had a pencil
behind his ear.

Name: _____

Preposition Art

Underline the prepositions in the following sentences and follow the directions.

Draw a beach ball above the boys head.
Draw a sand bucket between the boy and starfish.
Draw a sunscreen bottle beside the girl.
Color the picture with your best coloring skills!

Name: _____

Directions: SCOOT around the room to each task card.
Answer each card and record your answers in the appropriate boxes below.

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18

THANK YOU!

Thank you for downloading!
I hope this pack can be useful to you! To stay up to date with my latest resources, follow me on TpT and other social media.
Don't forget to rate this pack to receive credits on future purchases.

<https://www.pinterest.com/angelajdixon/>

Instagram: angdixon 