

Miss Panther's Pride Pageant Information Sheet

What

The Panther's Pride Pageant is a pageant produced by the Smiths Station High School Varsity Pantherette dance team. Young girls in grades K-6 will compete in one pageant with three divisions and grades 7-12 will compete in a separate pageant in two divisions.

The Little Miss Panther's Pride pageant will feature three different age categories. The Little Miss categories are Tiny Miss (grades K-1), Little Miss (grades 2-3) and Young Miss (grades 4-6). Each category will feature one outfit of formal attire and one on stage question. Depending on the number of entries, the contestants may be narrowed down to a top 5 or a top 10 for the on stage question. There will also be an overall People's Choice Winner for grades K-6. The People's Choice winner will be based off audience members purchasing votes for their favorite contestant. The contestant with the most votes is the winner of People's Choice.

The Miss Panther's Pride Pageant will feature two categories. The Miss categories are Junior Miss (grades 7-8) and Miss (grades 9-12). Each category will feature one outfit of casual attire, one outfit of formal evening wear attire and an on-stage question. Depending on the number of entries, the contestants may be narrowed down to a top 5 or a top 10 for the on stage question. There will also be an overall People's Choice Winner for grades 7-12. The People's Choice winner will be based off audience members purchasing votes for their favorite contestant. The contestant with the most votes is the winner of People's Choice.
