Semestre & Anno: Semester I – Semester II - 2018-2019

“Una lingua ti conduce nel corridoio della vita. Due lingue ti aprono ogni porta nel tuo cammino”

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerequisite: Italian 3

With stress on comprehension, the student is now involved with more advanced reading and more practice in writing by working to experience and explore relevant, real-world problem, questions, issues, and challenges. Knowledge of Italian writers, artists, musicians, scientists and historical personages is encouraged through research creating projects. and presentations to share what they have learned.

You have successfully completed three of Italian and your studies here at Crosby! In Italiano IV, we will focus primarily on oral communication, speech, and writing. We will do this by utilizing and enhancing the knowledge of the language and culture, and create your own Italian Carnevale Mask. For this project, you will not only need to research the carnevale in Italian language, but use your creative and presentation skills to present your mask all in Italian language. In Italian IV, be prepared to not only speak Italian, but understand, watch, and relate to Italian television shows, literature, and music.

By now, STUDENTS WILL BE ABLE TO: Understand the main message and supporting details on a wide variety of familiar and general interest topics across various time frames from complex, organized texts that are spoken, written, or signed. Maintain spontaneous spoken, written, or signed conversations and discussions across various time frames on familiar, as well as unfamiliar, concrete topics, using series of connected sentences and probing questions. Deliver detailed and organized presentations on familiar as well as unfamiliar concrete topics, in paragraphs and using various time frames through spoken, written, or signed language.

COURSE GOALS/LEARNING OBJECTIVES

COURSE POLICIES

- Attendance and Tardy Policy

- Attendance Policy: Please refer to the district policy located on the Crosby website or in the student handbook (<https://goo.gl/nSz4er>)
- Students who are tardy to a class 3 times will serve a detention issued by the classroom teacher. Each subsequent tardy will be a referral to the office for disciplinary action.
- Late Work Policy
 - Italian class Late Work Policy is as followed:
 - No late homework allowed, unless absent or given permission by me (see below)
 - I do understand that emergency situation may prevent a student from handing in an assignment, homework, and project on time. In this situation work will be accepted within 2 days of the absence, but will be penalized 20 points. On the third day, a grade of “zero” will be received
 - Refer to district grading policy or see the link at the bottom of the page.
- Academic Dishonesty - Academic dishonesty shall in general mean conduct which has as its intent or effect the false representation of a student's academic performance, including but not limited to:
 - a. Cheating on an examination
 - b. Collaborating with others in work to be presented, contrary to the stated rules of the course
 - c. Plagiarizing, including the submission of others ideas or papers (whether purchased, borrowed or otherwise obtained) as one's own
 - d. Stealing or having unauthorized access to examination or course materials
 - e. Falsifying records, laboratory or other data
 - f. Submitting, if contrary to the rules of a course, work previously presented in another course
 - g. Knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above, including assistance in an arrangement whereby any work, classroom performance, examination or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other than the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed.

Students should not give or receive aid during examinations, quizzes, tests or lab assignments. Students should not use answers to examinations, quizzes and tests written on cheat sheets, clothing or body parts, or obtained from others who have taken the same test prior to them. Students should not use in any written work, without proper acknowledgement, the wording of any sentence or part of a sentence of another author without acknowledgement of the original author. Students should not use calculating devices during tests where calculators are not permitted.

Plagiarism according to The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, Fourth Edition, 2000, is “1. A piece of writing that has been copied from someone else and is presented as being your own. 2. The act of plagiarizing: taking someone's words or ideas as if they were your own.” If you copy another's work in a paper, for instance, you must put the copied material in quotation marks and footnote or endnotes. If you restate the language or thoughts of another in your own words, you are paraphrasing. Omit the quotation marks, but footnote or endnote the original source. Not to attribute the idea to the original person is to plagiarize. In general, it is better to acknowledge too many sources than too few.

Plagiarism, as defined above, is considered a serious academic offense. According to Connecticut statute, plagiarism is a criminal act and classified as a Class “B” misdemeanor.

The teacher, in conference with an administrator, will exercise his/her professional judgment when determining an appropriate penalty for a project that has been plagiarized. The nature of the penalty should be relative to the magnitude of the offense. Examples of penalties that will be invoked are: a zero for the project, an “F” for the course, and/or referral to the proper authorities. The teacher and administrator will determine if the student may be permitted to complete the paper properly, or write an entire new paper properly. These and other penalties will not be imposed when the classroom teacher determines that the sources in a paper have been mis-cited. The teacher with the administration will determine the extent of grade reduction and possible suspension or referral to authorities. (Obtained from Tunxis Community College Handbook)
