

Map

Reading a map is very important because it helps people find directions so one doesn't get lost. Reading skills is important because the directions east, south, west and north are not all formatted the same. Some maps have east on top of the page while others are to the right of the page, but knowing how to read maps it easier to find directions. We are in ___ and which direction is Window Rock, Chinle, Tuba City and Monument Valley from where you are. What state are they in? And Which highway will take you there? Might be some questions to ask if you decide to find it on the map.
