

3rd Grade ELA

L.3.5c

Passage (A Day with Bibby)

- 1 I have a cat named Bibby. She thinks she is a human, and she goes everywhere I go. She follows me around the house to see what I am doing. Sometimes, she acts as if she wants to help me.
- 2 Today I labored in the garden. I was cutting the lawn. Who was there? Bibby. She seemed like she wanted to help. I had to be careful not to hurt her.
- 3 Later, I trimmed the plants. Guess who was watching me? Bibby. She thought it would be amusing to trim the plants. She could play with the leaves as they would fall. I had to be careful not to trim her.
- 4 Then, I started to water the yard. Guess who was in the way? Bibby. She thought this would be fun too. I decided to play with her. I squirted her with the hose.
- 5 Bibby does not follow me around anymore.

Created on Apr 5, 2019 | Updated on Sep 12, 2022

Language: English | Passage Category: Literary Text | Passage Genre: Fiction | Passage Sub-Genre: Personal Narratives | Word Count: 151 | Lexile: 410 | Levels of Meaning / Purpose: Measure 1 | Structure: Measure 1 | Language Clarity: Measure 2 | Knowledge Demands: Measure 2

Master ID 113369 | Revision 3 | Inspect Plus, Inspect Premium, Texas Formative Bank, Texas Formative Bank Archived

View | Feedback

1 Matching

18 Total

Overview

Question MC

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.L.3.5.c

Read the sentence about Bibby from the passage.

She thinks she is a human, and she goes everywhere I go.

The word thinks has multiple meanings. What does the word thinks MOST LIKELY tell the reader about Bibby?

- A Bibby is as smart as a person.
- B Bibby believes she is a person.
- C Bibby wants to turn into a person.
- D Bibby daydreams about being a person.

Passage (The Wolf, the Goat, and the Kid)

A goat was leaving to graze among the fresh grass. Before she went, she had a warning for her kid. She pointed to her white hoof and said, "Do not open the door unless you see this sign and hear the password, 'honey'." The wolf, who was prowling around outside, overheard the password. The goat did not see the wolf and went on her way. As soon as she left, the wolf knocked at the door. He asked to be let in, saying, "honey." The very smart kid peeked through the crack in the door and said, "Show me your white hoof, or else I will not open the door." Upon hearing these words, the wolf went slinking home. Where would the kid be now if he believed the password that the wolf overheard?

Created on May 17, 2019 | Updated on Mar 4, 2022

Language: English | Passage Category: Literary Text | Passage Genre: Fiction | Passage Sub-Genre: Fantasy | Word Count: 134 | Lexile: 790 | Levels of Meaning / Purpose: Measure 2 | Structure: Measure 1 | Language Clarity: Measure 1 | Knowledge Demands: Measure 2

Master ID 114282 | Revision 3 | Inspect Plus, Inspect Premium, Texas Formative Bank, Texas Formative Bank Archived

View | Feedback

1 Matching

18 Total

Overview

Question MC

CCSS.ELA-Literacy.L.3.5.c

Read the sentence from the passage.

Where would the kid be now if he believed the password that the wolf overheard?

The word believed has multiple meanings. What does the word believed MOST LIKELY tell the reader about the kid in the passage?

- A The kid did not trust what the wolf was saying.
- B The kid did not hear the wolf when it was talking.
- C The kid did not understand the words used by the wolf.
- D The kid did not think that the wolf had the right password.