FENG YANG SONG

Sing the Feng Yang Song; Sing it loud and long.
Clash cymbals, beat the drum, strike the metal gong!
We are the vendors who travel all day long,
Calling our wares to the Feng Yang Song.

Feng yang, feng yang, beat the gong, strike the clappers well.
Clash cymbals, byah yah yang, Clash cymbals, byah yah yang!
Brr dong! Brr dong!
Brr dong yah feng yang, feng yang,
Brr, beat the drum!

Gifts for you have I,
Kites that swoop and fly;
Small trinkets, many toys, all of you may buy.
Paper of gold shining, bamboo smooth and strong,
Calling the clear, ringing toy-man's song.
Feng yang, feng yang, beat the gong,
Strike the clappers well.
Clash cymbals, byah yah yang,
Clash cymbals, byah yah yang!
Brr dong! Brr dong!
Brr dong yah feng yang, feng yang,
Brr, beat the drum!

Men and women labor in pride,

So that war and hunger may cease,
We are working, working for peace.
Though the days be heavy and long,
We will make our nation strong.

The Birch Tree

See the lovely birch in the meadow,
Curly leaves all dancing when the wind blows.
Loo-lee-loo,
When the wind blows,
Loo-lee-loo,
When the wind blows.

From my little tree, I will make now,
I will make a tingling balalaika.

Loo-lee-loo, balalaika,
Loo-lee-loo, balalaika.

When I play my new balalaika,
I will think of you, my lovely birch tree.
Loo-lee-loo, lovely birch tree.
Loo-lee-loo, lovely birch tree.
