GRADE 4

In Grade 4, the Literacy Foundation headings Oral Language, Phonological Awareness, and Phonemic Awareness are no longer listed with Content Areas as the focus changes from oral language to written responses to literature, which require increased academic vocabulary and technical skills. While students still ask and answer questions about literary and informational texts, they increasingly perform these tasks mentally ("thinking about their thinking") and usually write their responses instead of expressing them aloud. Students who still struggle with oral language, phonological awareness, and phonemic awareness should receive intervention and/or individualized instruction to close those gaps and to develop the expertise needed for reading and interpreting more complex literary works.

The focus areas Reception and Expression are now listed alongside the categories of Reading, Listening, Writing, and Speaking, indicating the alignment of each area with the categories' primary goals: reception of ideas with the Reading and Listening categories, and expression of ideas with the Writing and Listening categories.

Content areas may not have a standard in every category. In such cases, the category remains blank with the row shaded to indicate that the omission was intentional.

The Grades 4-5 Recurring Standards for English Language Arts, shown in the chart below, are an important part of every grade level. Through these standards, students learn and practice active listening, utilize context to decipher word meanings, learn and practice essential digital skills, become adept at finding and understanding literary devices, determine the formality of different situations in order to respond appropriately, and utilize a process to create and modify written work. The recurring standards are to be incorporated throughout the grade level.
