IV. OLD BUSINESS ITEMS

- A. Second Reading of the Appeals process for early entry into Kindergarten, Discussion and vote on changes to the process and any additional costs included.
- B. Second Reading of the Naco School Uniform Policy Regulations. The policy will now return to only collared shirts may be worn to school, those shirts may include either Polo Shirts, Oxford Shirts or Turtleneck shirts. The shirts must also be able to be tucked into the student's pants or shorts.

V. NEW BUSINESS ACTION ITEMS

- A. Presentation, Discussion and possible vote on the changes to the 2022-2023 School Calendar.
- B. Presentation, Discussion and possible vote on approving the Budget for 2022-2023 School Year with changes as explained by Donna Horton to the Tentative Budget that was previously approved, now that we have real numbers to work with.
- C. Presentation, discussion and vote on approving an agreement for Architectural services, working with and through SFB. Shawn Mastel our new SFB representative is requesting that all of our buildings be assessed with a list of deficiencies. They will pay for this assessment. Vendors will be looking at roofs, walls, and will be testing for asbestos in all areas, as well as mold and other harmful contaminants. The goal is to get all these deficiencies remedied with funding from SFB, with SFB knowing what deficiencies we have, if there is not enough funding in their FY23 budget, they would have documentation to go back to the legislature to request more funding to get our school in a better state for our community and students.
- D. Presentation, Discussion and possible vote on addendum to School employee contracts.
- E. Presentation, Discussion and possible vote on approving participation in the CEP program for the next 4 years per state/Federal Approval. This will allow all students to eat free and we will not have to collect Free and reduced forms for the next 4 years.
