

Welcome Cowboys & Cowgirls

Chino High School
Class of 2021

Our Goals Today

- Introduce students to Chino High School
- Know who your child's counselor is
- Inform students and parents about our high school graduation requirements
- What parents can do to assure their child stays on track
- Familiarize students and parents about opportunities available at Chino High

Reasons for seeing your counselor

- Academics concerns or questions
- Career questions
- College guidance
- Social or personal problems
- Support
- Outside referrals

Chino High School Counselors

- Mrs. Annette Allen:
A-ELI (C.H.O.M.P)
- Mrs. Lucia Gibbs:
ELV-LON (L.J.P.S)
- Ms. Gail Heisel:
Sp. Education Counselor
- Ms. Gonzales
LOPEZ-PENA/AVID
- Mr. Aragon
PERAZA-Z
- Intervention counselors
- Mrs. Zuk 10th/11th
- Miss Johnson 9th/10th

How To See Your Counselor or the Intervention Counselor

- Make an appointment. The counselor secretary will schedule appointments for you before school, during lunch or after school.
- Leave a note explaining your questions/concerns for your counselor with the counselor secretary if your counselor is unavailable.
- Parents can call ext 3430 or email their child's counselor directly
- If you have an emergency and your counselor is not available, informed the counselor secretary and they will find someone to assist you.

Stay on Track...

- It is essential that students remain “on track” through high school.
- Failure to pass required classes not only puts the student at risk of not graduating on time, but it also limits the variety of electives available to that student.
- Summer school opportunities are extremely limited!!!

Stay Informed

- Back to School Night
- “Instant Grade Check” (Available for download at Chino High Website)
- AERIES Parent Portal account
- Email teachers
- Request parent conferences with teachers
- Review progress report cards every 6 weeks
- Attend lunch and/or after school tutoring
- Always know your child’s credits and G.P.A
- Make sure your child has an agenda/supplies

How is your child placed in classes?

- Counselors create schedules based on junior high teachers' recommendation
