

JUNIORS: INTERESTS, MAJORS, AND CAREERS

KEY QUESTIONS

- What area of study or major will be best for me?
- What majors lead towards a career that I am interested in?
- What can I do with the major I explore?
- What colleges offer that major?
- What do community colleges offer?
- What about Technical/Vocational schools, Private schools and Out-of-state schools?

BEGIN BY FOCUSING ON YOUR INTERESTS

SELECT "NEW USER"

The screenshot shows the Kuder Navigator website interface. At the top, the browser address bar displays <http://www.kudernavigator.com/>. The main header features the Kuder Navigator logo and the text "For Middle and High School Students". Below this, a paragraph states: "Starting to build a career plan? Looking for colleges? Ready to showcase your portfolio? Navigator makes planning for the future fun while providing the reliable college and career".

On the right side, there is a "Get Started!" section with a red arrow pointing to it. This section contains a "User Name" input field, a "Password" input field, and a "Log In" button. Below the "Log In" button are two links: "New users register here!" and "Forgot your login information?". A red arrow points from the "New users register here!" link towards the "Students" section.

The "Students" section is highlighted with a blue header and features a photo of four smiling students. Below the photo, it says: "Discover and build a career around your unique interests and skills." The "Administrators" section is also highlighted with a blue header and features a photo of a woman smiling. Below the photo, it says: "Improve career guidance and support students' exploration."

On the right side, there are two sections: "Middle School Students" and "High School Students". The "Middle School Students" section lists three bullet points: "Watch videos and read about all of the different careers you can explore.", "Quiz yourself about your interests and discover how to connect them to careers.", and "Get ahead of the game by starting a four-year education plan." The "High School Students" section lists three bullet points: "Search for colleges and financial aid to help you fulfill your goals.", "Build a personal portfolio that's all about you and what you can offer.", and "Create résumés, practice interviewing skills, and look for jobs." Below these is the "Administrators" section, which lists two bullet points: "Improve career guidance by reviewing career assessment results and portfolio materials." and "Communicate with students and parents about".

The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 11:01 AM on 4/18/2012.

CAREER SEARCH WITH PERSON MATCH

The screenshot shows the Kuder Navigator website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Home, Learn About Myself (highlighted), Explore Occupations, Plan for Education, Plan for Work, Find a Job, and My Portfolio. Below the navigation bar, there is a sidebar on the left with links: Take an Assessment, Enter Assessment Scores, View Assessment Results, and View Occupations Suggested by Assessments. A large grey arrow points from the 'Take an Assessment' link in the sidebar to the 'Take an Assessment' section in the main content area.

Take an Assessment

These are the three assessments that you can take inside of the system. Take a look at the descriptions and then start with whatever one works best for you. Afraid that you won't have the time to finish? Don't worry – you can save your progress and come back later.

Kuder Career Search with Person Match

18 min Start »

Connect your top interests with career clusters.

Choose what activity you like to do the most, the next most, and the least. When you're finished, your highest interests will be matched with careers that you may enjoy.

Kuder Skills Assessment

What do you believe you're good at doing?

Rate how confident you are that you can accomplish each activity. When you're finished, review the skills you have and explore careers that need those skills.

32 min Start »

Did You Know?

Kuder's three online assessments are based on over 70 years of research. The assessments aren't meant to tell you what you should do or will be successful in doing. Instead, they give you some focus about where to begin your search for career options. The scores from each of these assessments are stored in your portfolio.
