WRITTEN BY: MEG CABOT

SUMMARY BY: K.R.H.G.A.S. AGE: 100-99+8

In the book “Allie Finkle rules for girl’s stage fright” Allie and her class are putting on a play. Allie wants to play the lead part {which is Princess Penelope} butSo does her best friend! Who will get the lead part in the end and whoever does will they get carried away with the play.....read the book to find out who gets the part and who gets carried away.

Here is a text-to-mom connection from a part of the book. When my mom was growing up she had a lot of rules. For example, when my mom’s sister {Kaitelynn} wanted to sleep in my mom’s bed my mom would have a lot of rules like not kick, not snore, and more or else my mom would pinch or kick or smack her. In my book the main character has a lot of rules too.

In this book the author, Meg Cabot, explains a bunch of important rules like “May the best man or woman win” and “Never eat anything red”.

I would recommend this book to girls who like friendship and rules.
