

ANTHONY LEIGH

Sheffield native, Anthony Leigh, is the Senior Vice President at Huntingdon College in Montgomery, Alabama. He is a thirteen-year product of Sheffield City Schools, attending C.M. Brewster Elementary, L.E. Willson Middle School and Sheffield High School. He graduated from SHS in 1995 with an advanced academic diploma.

Prior to joining the administration at Huntingdon in 2009, Anthony served as Alabama's Deputy State Treasurer from 2003 to 2009. He also enjoyed a three-year stint on the Washington staff of United States Senator Jeff Sessions serving as his legislative assistant for economic policy.

Anthony is a graduate of Wofford College in Spartanburg, South Carolina, where he was a three-year officer of the student body, serving as president his senior year. He is scheduled to complete a master's degree in philanthropy and development from Saint Mary's University in August of 2016.

Anthony and his wife, Wendy, are active members of the Montgomery community. He is the Chairman of the Advisory Board of Baptist Medical Center East and the Chairman of the Board of Stewards of Frazer Memorial United Methodist Church. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Business Council of Alabama and the Montgomery Rotary Club Foundation.

He is very proud to call Tim and Bobbie Lou Leigh of Sheffield his parents, and he is grateful for the many ways they have encouraged him and allowed him to see the world beyond his backyard. Throughout his career in government and higher education, Anthony has intentionally sought to shine a positive spotlight on his hometown.
