Principal's Message

Is it really April??? It is hard to believe when the weather forecast still calls for snow and freezing temperatures!!! Though old man winter wants to keep holding on, the school year keeps pressing along extremely quickly. We are in the critical 3 final months of the 2017-18 school year when students will finalize their preparations for, and engage in end of year assessments to determine their academic growth and mastery of grade level curriculum. April is a short month as we enjoy a week off for Spring break, but remember the importance of continuing to read every day while you are away from school. It helps to keep your reading skills sharp! Though April only consists of a few short weeks that we are together, it continues to be an important time for rigorous and impactful learning. Our PBIS committee continues to plan exciting incentive reward activities to encourage our students to choose positive behavior and earn participation in these fun events! When we reach this point in the school year, it is hard to believe how much there is left to accomplish, but so little time. Therefore, let's make the best of everyday of learning, be kind to one another and achieve our goals!!!!

Kindest Regards, Ms. Rosser
