

Ideologies and Upheavals, 1815–1850

I. The Aftermath of the Napoleonic Wars

A. The European Balance of Power

1. The Peace(s) of Paris
2. Congress of Vienna
3. The Balance of Power

B. Repressing the Revolutionary Spirit

1. Holy Alliance
2. Repression in Spain and Italy
3. The Carlsbad Decrees (1819)

Map 22.1 Europe in 1815
 Chapter 22, A History of Western Society, Tenth Edition
 Copyright © 2011 by Bedford/St. Martin's
 Page 688

I. The Aftermath of the Napoleonic Wars

C. Metternich and Conservatism

1. Metternich's Ideas
2. Liberalism and Nationalism
3. The Multi-Ethnic Austrian Empire
4. Russia and the Ottoman Empire

Map 22.2 Peoples of the Habsburg Monarchy, 1815
 Chapter 22, A History of Western Society, Tenth Edition
 Copyright © 2011 by Bedford/St. Martin's
 Page 690

II. The Spread of Radical Ideas

A. Liberalism and the Middle Class

1. The Ideas of Liberalism
2. Radical Criticisms of Liberalism

B. The Growing Appeal of Nationalism

1. Origins
2. Overcoming Challenges
3. Nationalist Beliefs

II. The Spread of Radical Ideas

C. French Utopian Socialism

1. Beliefs
2. Count Henri de Saint-Simon (1760–1825)
3. Charles Fourier (1772–1837)
4. Louis Blanc (1811–1882)
5. Pierre Joseph Proudhon (1809–1865)

II. The Spread of Radical Ideas

D. The Birth of Marxian Socialism

1. Karl Marx (1818–1883) and Friedrich Engels
2. The Bourgeoisie and the Proletariat
3. Influences on Marx
 4. Hegel, Marx, and Dialectics

III. The Romantic Movement

A. Romanticism's Tenets

1. Characteristics
2. Lifestyles
3. View of Nature

B. Literature

1. William Wordsworth (1770–1850)
2. Victor Hugo (1802–1885)
3. George Sand (1804–1876)
4. Aleksander Pushkin (1799–1837)

III. The Romantic Movement

C. Art and Music

1. Eugene Delacroix (1798–1863)
2. Joseph Turner (1775–1851) and John Constable (1776–1837)
3. Romantic Music

IV. Reforms and Revolutions Before 1848

A. National Liberation in Greece

1. Ottoman Domination
2. The Greek Revolt (1821)
3. Foreign Intervention

B. Liberal Reform in Great Britain

1. Reasons for Reform
2. Calls for Reform
3. Reform Bill of 1832
4. Need for Further Reform

IV. Reforms and Revolutions Before 1848

C. Ireland and the Great Famine

1. Miserable Conditions
2. Population Explosion
3. The Great Famine (1845, 1846, 1848, 1851)

D. The Revolution of 1830 in France

1. Constitutional Charter of 1814
2. The Revolution of 1830
3. Louis Philippe (1830–1848)

V. The Revolutions of 1848

A. A Democratic Republic in France

1. Insurrection in Paris
2. Fissures in the Revolutionary Coalition
3. Violent Conflict

The Triumph of Democratic Republics
Archive of Arnolfo Mondadori Editore, Milan
Chapter 22, A History of Western Society, Tenth Edition
Copyright © 2011 by Bedford/St. Martin's
Page 708

V. The Revolutions of 1848

B. The Austrian Empire in 1848

1. Near Collapse of the Absolutist Order
2. Fissures in the Revolutionary Coalition
3. Ethnic Tensions
4. Restoration

V. The Revolutions of 1848

C. Prussia and the Frankfurt Assembly

1. Liberal Goals
2. The Frankfurt Parliament
3. Restoration