

Preparation of Pages. Make sure that you have most of these pages in the next column. You should have at least 10 pages that have been altered. Glue an envelope on the back page of the sketch book.	Watercolor wash, wet on wet, blot, salt, alcohol, dry brush, and toothbrush splatter. Tempra paint blended with analogous colors, solid color, dripped, and splattered, and stamped using found objects. Glue a page with a map of a place you find interesting, and a page of text that is full of words that you like. The painting techniques may be duplicated or combined to make interesting pages. Once the pages are dry and the journal is put together you must write a page number on each side of the paper in the lower corner of the page.
AP and Art 3 Only	Create pages of lists (project ideas, inspirational quotes, concentration ideas).
Five Steps of the Creative Process	Write these down in a creative way.
All of the sketchbook assignments must fill the page, and be completed with either color or value. You may use any materials you like to complete each assignment. When you use words the letters should be carefully drawn and not just written in your normal handwriting. It should take at least one hour for each assignment.
Sketch book Assignments	One assignment is due every two weeks. Specific due dates are on the website calendar. You may do them in any order, but you must put the assignment in the table of contents and label which page is to be graded, or the page will not be graded.

Shape Page	Divide the page into two sections, and label each section. Have one filled with geometric overlapping shapes, and the other with organic overlapping shapes, then fill them in with colors, textures, and patterns.
Illustrate 4 words from the list, all on one page.	Reach, Grow, Explore, Happy, Sad, Excite, Create, Grieve, Support, Fear, or Solitude.
Create your alter ego as a super hero.	Design a costume, logo on your costume, and name for you as a super hero, and show your superhero using your power
Gratitude Page	On this page create a work of art demonstrating things that you are thankful for. Remember the small things too.
If I ruled the world...	Complete that sentence using no words just images.
Song Lyrics	Illustrate one of your favorite songs using no words except the title of the song.

I regret...	Complete that sentence using no words, just images.
Body Part Study	Draw facial features (eyes, noses, ears, mouths), and hands and feet. Draw at least a total of 20 images all on one page showing value and details.
Found Poem	Glue a page of text in your journal. Find words that on the page that when read will turn into a poem. Circle the words of your poem, and illustrate the poem you created over the words that you didn't use.
Collage	Glue images on a page to make a new picture. Then on the next page draw or paint the images in a creative way.
Scavenger hunt	Draw 9 squares on a page , and draw the following 1. Something from the year you were born. 2. Something that you found in your pocket. 3. A piece of trash that you picked up off of the ground and threw away. 4. A used envelope. 5. Something metal. 6. Something plastic. 7. Something from nature. 8. Something with words on it. 9. Something small.
One subject various views	Find an object that looks different from different directions. Draw 5 different overlapping views on one page.
Dancing Card	Use a playing card for the body, and then tear paper to create a dancing creature. After everything is dry go in with pen and create texture, and details.
Create a page in honor of someone who you look up to.	Use any materials or techniques that you like to create this.
Scribble a portrait	Use the reference diagram to sketch a portrait of someone famous, or someone that you know. Then use a pen and scribble details in the portrait to create value.
Finish a blot	Drop some watercolor on a page, then let it dry. Use any materials other than watercolor to complete a picture using the blot as a starting point.
Your journey	On the surface of the map create a page that represents some sort of journey that you embarked upon during high school. This should not be a literal journey.
Quote	Find a way to illustrate one of your favorite quotes.
Things I love	Title the page "Things I Love", and create a page that represents this idea.