

QuaranTIME for ART!

Scholars can leave clues for future societies about what we are going through, or create an actual representation. The objective would be to reflect your thoughts on paper through any art media – paintings, drawings, poetry, short stories, word art collages, etc...

If we post the artwork on social media and tag it with #SpreadhopeCVUSD, we can see each other's artwork and hopefully spread positivity through our creativity.