Students in Madera High School's Art Class were asked to use everyday objects with texture to create a Handbag design.

Students did a scavenger hunt of textures.

- Draw a (large) bag on a blank piece of paper
- With a pencil, sketch 2 lines to create 3 spaces in the handbag
- Place one of the textured items underneath your drawing paper
- Use a pencil or crayon to trace the texture of the object of the spaces of the handbag
- Do the same with the other 2 texture of the object of the spaces of the handbag
- Do the same with the other 2 textures and fill the handbag with texture
- Clean up the lines and turn in

1. Take a photo of all 3 textures
2. Take a photo with your art
3. Take a photo of your art
