DISTRICT REPORTS:

- A. BOCES Report. Mr. Reschke reported policy was covered at the meeting on July 19, 2017.
- B. Education Foundation Report. Mr. Wilkinson reported at the July meeting the Education Foundation voted to grant the second renewal to Presley Garcia. They also awarded money for the swimming program at Bill Metz. Lorrie Harvey attended this meeting presenting the new banners from International Science Fair
- C. City/District Conversations. Mr. Webb reported they discussed the ordinance issues with marijuana. The City's planning committee is doing a good job to reach out to communities to get feedback on this. Mr. Webb is going to draft a letter to the City on this matter and will send it out to the Board to be reviewed. They also discussed homecoming activities.
- D. Summer School Report. Dirk Oden reported on the 2017 Summer School Program. We served 35 DELTA Center/High School students with 48 semester credits earned, 18 On-Line Students with 21 semester credits earned, 28 Middle School students with 93% attendance rate and 36 Bill Metz students were served.
- E. Follow-Up to Principal Reports. Mr. Tichy stated they expect to have 9-10 students participate in cross country. We will start demonstrating the S-CAP website at our Board meetings.
- F. Board Report. Mr. Nehring reported he presented with Mr. Webb at the CASE conference on CDE's performance frameworks. Mr. Nehring would like to present this to the staff.
- G. Superintendent Report. Mr. Webb reported we have five new classified staff and thirteen new teachers. We have had a lot of positive feedback on the induction program. Mrs. Jaminet is doing a great job with the induction program.

The Marsh roof will be completed before the kids start school.

We received the WISH grant. The intention of the grant is to develop a comprehensive school and community health and wellness program.

We need to increase the amount of SPED paraprofessional time at Metz. Erica Vollersteen will work at Metz and Monica will work with the Middle School. We will utilize her skills and hire her as a long term substitute.
