

Authorization of the School Social Workers

State of Arizona, Arizona Department of Education, Reporting Procedures-adopted October 2012

° A.R.S. § 13-3620 Reporting to law enforcement or child protective services

Navajo Nation, Alchini Bi Beehaz annii Act of 2011, adopted January 02, 2012

Navajo Nation annotated Title. 9 Domestic Relations Code, Subchapter 1. General Provisions, Chapter 11. Navajo Nation Children's, §§ 1001 - 1504

25 United States Code 3203, § 1169, Public Law 101-630, Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevent Act.

20 United States Code § 1232g; 34 Code of Federal Regulations Part 99, the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

As School Social Workers we are limited to providing in-depth social services methodology; such as conducting home investigation; making child placements; or removing children from their home. We can however make a thorough referral to the tribal social services and follow through these recommendations with an authorized Social Worker.

*School Social Worker does not have the same authority as Navajo Nation Social***