

AVID End of the Year Reflection

Instructions: Answer the following prompts to the best of your ability to reflect on the significant events and people from this past year in school. This information will be a great resource for you in your Senior year when you need to write essays for college admissions and scholarship applications.

My favorite class this year was...

My most challenging class this year was...

The most significant challenge I faced this year was...

This year I made academic progress in the following areas...

This year I achieved personal growth in the following areas...

The teacher I respect/appreciated the most this year was...

The person who had the most significant impact on me this year was...

My biggest accomplishment this year was...

I achieved the following goals this year...

My goals for next year are...