Bearstone by Will Hobbs Scavenger Hunt

Date Due: __/_/__ Total: ____/145

Objectives: I will be able to:

- Identify two themes from the book. (__/5)
  1.
  - 2.
- Write a three-four paragraph essay that connects one of the themes listed above to your life. Make sure that you use specific examples out of the book as evidence for your thoughts. (___/10)

• Analyze the theme as it progressed throughout the book in at least two paragraphs. (____/5)

- T/F Your theme must be the same as someone else in the class. (___/2)
   Why?
- Identify the setting.
  - Identify the significance of the setting and its connection to the climax. (____/5)

 Analyze and discuss a particular element of the story and how it interacts with the next event in the story. (For example, Cloyd learns that Rusty killed a bear after hunting on Walter's land. He seeks revenge by destroying Walter's chainsaw, peach trees, and the fence posts that he worked super hard on. This event, then caused Cloyd to realize ...) (___/5)

 Analyze and discuss by using evidence from the book of how Will Hobbs developed the points of view for different characters throughout the book. (____/5)

- Analyze and discuss the development of each character throughout the book. Write your answer in a couple of complete paragraphs below each name. Make sure to use at least one direct quote as supporting evidence:
  - Cloyd (____/10)

• Walter (____/10)

• Analyze and discuss the relationship between Cloyd and Walter throughout the book. (____/5)

• While focusing on this relationship, analyze the language that Cloyd uses when speaking to Walter. Why did Will Hobbs allow Cloyd to speak to Walter in a hateful manner at the beginning of the book? Then allow him to change his attitude and feelings towards the old man at the end of the book? (_____/5)

• Cloyd is Ute. He is constantly referring to his Ute culture. Research the cultural traditions of this tribe in order to compare and contrast their ways of life to yours. Use the space below to make your plan. You only need to show the similarities and differences of the two cultures on a Venn diagram.

• Write your essay on Google Docs and share it with me. ____/10

• Write an objective summary of Bearstone that is at least five paragraphs in length. (___/10)
