

Suggested Curriculum

	10 th Grade	11 th Grade	summer	12 th Grade
1	Honors English (AOF)	English	Earns ½ or 1 credit	English
2	Math	Math		Math
3	Science	Science		Science
4	Civics with Economics	US History		Elective
5	PE/Health	Foreign Language		Foreign Language
6	Principles of Business (Honors)	Applied Finance/ Principles of Accounting (Honors)		AOF II (Honors) or AP Macro/Micro
7	Elective	US History I (Honors or AP)		US History 2 Honors (Or other elective)
8	Elective	Elective		Elective
Internship is not guaranteed; minimum GPA/Attendance and behavior standards; may be paid or volunteer

BE FUTURE
READY

Course Descriptions

- ☆ Principles of Business – Study the rights and responsibilities of a consumer and worker, career opportunities, credit, money management, budgeting, investments, free enterprise and economic systems as they relate to global economy. HONORS
- ☆ AOF 1 – Junior year. Introduces students to the broad career opportunities of the financial service industry, creating new options for the future. Emphasis is on insurance, banking, securities, credit, and accounting. HONORS
- ☆ Summer Internship – Academy students are offered a unique experience to Intern with a business in the Winston-Salem area during the summer between their junior and senior years. Internships are paid opportunities for credit. While not guaranteed for every student, to date, all eligible students have been placed.
- ☆ Senior year: Advanced Placement Microeconomics and Macroeconomics, industry-themed curriculum with credit through Forsyth Technical Community College. Emphasis is on Financial Planning and International Finance. Substitutions include AP Human Geography, and others as approved.

BE FUTURE
READY

Activities

- Field Trips:
- Job Shadowing with Clemmons Rotary
- Speakers
- Resume and Dress for Success
- Problem Based Learning
- Mentoring and Mock Interviews
- Field trip to New York City (Optional)
- Advanced classes (Forsyth Tech or AP)

*BE FUTURE
READY*