Carrington Teacher of the Year Diane Mauceri

Superintendent's Recognition Awardee: Emily Ashirova

Dedicated, Kind, Smart, Versatile Diane Mauceri has taught at Carrington School for 10 years, the first nine of which were as a teacher of third grade. This year she opened Carrington's first Prekindergarten class. As exemplified by the photograph above, Mrs. Mauceri is teaching the young children so well, introducing them to literacy, numeracy, social skills, health awareness, and so much more.

Colleagues have endorsed Diane Mauceri by naming her Carrington School Teacher of the Year 2014.

As a student who has for six years at Carrington School been consistently respectful, responsible and safe, as well as industrious, friendly, kind, and helpful, Emily Ashirova was recognized with the Superintendent's Award.

Proud Moment Emily stood after the ceremony with President Stango of the Waterbury Board of Education, Superintendent Ouellette, and Principal Brennan.

Nevaehs and Kessiah expressed their preferences as Mrs. Gwiazdoski checked the process of stating, giving reasons, and re-stating their views.

Would You Rather X or Y? After a lesson on the difference between fact and opinion, Mrs. Gwiazdoski's first graders stated their opinions and preferences and later wrote about them. Nevaehs Ruiz and Kessiah Campbell exchanged their views yesterday. Their writing is on page 2.

1st grader Recreates Nest
As a sign of spring, Danae Brazoban Nunez imitated a bird's nest by collecting twigs and branches and forming the resting place of a kind of bird.
