

#6 LOTF Ch. 6-7 Questions

In complete sentences, support your answers with concrete details. For instance, "quote" (Golding #).

Chapter 6

1. Explain the conflict between Ralph and Jack on pages 100-102. What does Ralph tell Jack to do when Jack tries to talk out of turn?
2. Where do the boys go to hunt the "beast"? Who volunteers to go first and see if the beast is ahead? Explain how this decision is made.
3. What do the boys do on the small island? What does Ralph urge them to concentrate on instead? What does this reveal about their characters? What does the signal fire symbolize?

Chapter 7

1. Why does Ralph feel that things have changed for the worse? How can you tell that he misses the security of his boyhood?
2. What does Simon say to encourage Ralph at the beginning of the chapter? Why does Simon not mention any of the other boys, why only Ralph? What might this foreshadow?
3. What was the boys' motive for making a game out of "hunting" Robert? What does this show about what they've become? What might this foreshadow?
4. How does Ralph react to his first "hunting" experience? What can be inferred about his character from this and how does it develop Golding's themes?

#6 LOTF Ch. 6-7 Questions

In complete sentences, support your answers with concrete details. For instance, "quote" (Golding #).

Chapter 6

1. Explain the conflict between Ralph and Jack on pages 100-102. What does Ralph tell Jack to do when Jack tries to talk out of turn?
2. Where do the boys go to hunt the "beast"? Who volunteers to go first and see if the beast is ahead? Explain how this decision is made.
3. What do the boys do on the small island? What does Ralph urge them to concentrate on instead? What does this reveal about their characters? What does the signal fire symbolize?

Chapter 7

1. Why does Ralph feel that things have changed for the worse? How can you tell that he misses the security of his boyhood?
2. What does Simon say to encourage Ralph at the beginning of the chapter? Why does Simon not mention any of the other boys, why only Ralph? What might this foreshadow?
3. What was the boys' motive for making a game out of "hunting" Robert? What does this show about what they've become? What might this foreshadow?
4. How does Ralph react to his first "hunting" experience? What can be inferred about his character from this and how does it develop Golding's themes?

#6 LOTF Ch. 6-7 Questions

In complete sentences, support your answers with concrete details. For instance, "quote" (Golding #).

Chapter 6

1. Explain the conflict between Ralph and Jack on pages 100-102. What does Ralph tell Jack to do when Jack tries to talk out of turn?
2. Where do the boys go to hunt the "beast"? Who volunteers to go first and see if the beast is ahead? Explain how this decision is made.
3. What do the boys do on the small island? What does Ralph urge them to concentrate on instead? What does this reveal about their characters? What does the signal fire symbolize?

Chapter 7

1. Why does Ralph feel that things have changed for the worse? How can you tell that he misses the security of his boyhood?
2. What does Simon say to encourage Ralph at the beginning of the chapter? Why does Simon not mention any of the other boys, why only Ralph? What might this foreshadow?
3. What was the boys' motive for making a game out of "hunting" Robert? What does this show about what they've become? What might this foreshadow?
4. How does Ralph react to his first "hunting" experience? What can be inferred about his character from this and how does it develop Golding's themes?