

WINNING WOLVES

Annie Bricker won one of two Arizona League of IB Schools $500 scholarships. She is an IB Diploma candidate who exemplifies the IB Learner Profile. Congratulations, Annie!

CHS's Student Council members were introduced to the CUSD Governing Board last Wednesday. Amanda Kichler, Student Body President, reported on the numerous events our student leaders have already executed as well as plans for the rest of the year, including this month's 100th Birthday Party and 100th Year Celebration. Great job, Amanda and StuCo!

Congratulations to CHS Senior Gianni Brown who made the House of Payne Invitational All-Tournament Team this past weekend!

The Chandler High Air Force Jr. ROTC program participated in last week's Andersen Elementary assembly honoring military families.

Congratulations to the CHS Girls Golf Team for their great showing at the Antigua Tournament. The team had an excellent performance, shooting 386 and 380. Ellie Porman shot 79/73 to finish in the top ten (9th place). Ellie birdied the 18th hole on Saturday to put her in that position. Great job, Wolves!

Congrats to the following teams on their big wins last week:

- V Football def. Valor Christian, five-time defending Colorado State Champions, 22-7. Come out and support the undefeated Wolves at Mountain Pointe this Friday!
- Girls Volleyball def. Westwood 3-2 and Desert Ridge 2-1
