

Rhetoric of the Op-Ed Page

MODULE 2

Module: Teacher Version

Module Reading Selections,
Description, Background, and Objectives 1

Reading Rhetorically

TEXT – “Three Ways to Persuade”

Prereading

Getting Ready to Read 3
Exploring Key Concepts 5

TEXT – “A Change of Heart about Animals”

Surveying the Text 7
Making Predictions and Asking
Questions 8
Understanding Key Vocabulary 9

Reading

Reading for Understanding 11
Considering the Structure of the Text 12
Noticing Language 16
Annotating and Questioning the Text 18
Analyzing Stylistic Choices 19

Postreading

Summarizing and Responding 21
Thinking Critically 22

TEXT – “Hooked on a Myth: do Fish Feel Pain”

Prereading

Getting Ready to Read 24
Surveying the Text (Braithwaite) 24
Understanding Key Vocabulary 25

Reading

Reading for Understanding 26
Considering the Structure of the Text 26
Analyzing Stylistic Choices 27

Postreading

Summarizing and Responding 28

TEXT – “Of Primates and Personhood: Will Accordinging Rights and ‘Dignity’ to Nonhuman Organisms Halt Research?”

Prereading

Getting Ready to Read 29

Reading
Reading for Understanding 29
Noticing Language 29
Analyzing Stylistic Choices (Yong) 31
Postreading
Summarizing and Responding 32
Thinking Critically 33
Reflecting on Your Reading Process 34

Connecting Reading to Writing

Discovering What You Think

Considering the Writing Task 35
Taking a Stance 37
Gathering Evidence to Support Your Claims .. 39
Getting Ready to Write 40

Writing Rhetorically

Entering the Conversation

Composing a Draft 41
Considering Structure 41
Using the Words of Others
(and Avoiding Plagiarism) 44
Negotiating Voices 46

Revising and Editing

Revising Rhetorically 47
Considering Stylistic Choices 49
Editing the Draft 49
Responding to Feedback 51
Reflecting on Your Writing Process 53

Reading Selections

“Three Ways to Persuade,” John R. Edlund 55
“A Change of Heart About Animals,”
Jeremy Rifkin 59
“Letters to the Editor in Response to
‘A Change of Heart About Animals,’”
John R. Edlund 61
“Hooked on a Myth: Do Fish Feel Pain?”
Victoria Braithwaite 62

“Of Primates and Personhood: Will According Rights and 'Dignity' to Nonhuman Organisms Halt Research? “ Ed Yong	64
---	----

Module: Student Version

Activity 1: Getting Ready to Read	67
Activity 2: Exploring Key Concepts.....	68
Activity 3: Exploring the Concept of “Persuasion”	68
Activity 4: Surveying the Text (Rifkin).....	69
Activity 5: Making Predictions and Asking Questions (Rifkin)	70
Activity 6: Understanding Key Vocabulary	70
Activity 7: Reading for Understanding	71
Activity 8: Considering the Structure of the Text	72
Activity 9: Noticing Language	73
Activity 10: Annotating and Questioning the Text	73
Activity 11: Analyzing Stylistic Choices— Loaded Words: Language That Puts a Slant on Reality.....	73
Activity 12: Questions About the Rifkin Article.....	74
Activity 13: Summarizing and Responding.....	75
Activity 14: Thinking Critically	75
Activity 15: Surveying the Text	76
Activity 16: Understanding Key Vocabulary.....	77
Activity 17: Reading for Understanding (Braithwaite).....	77
Activity 18: Considering the Structure of the Text—Descriptive Outline.....	78
Activity 19: Analyzing Stylistic Choices	78
Activity 20: Summarizing and Responding—Quickwrite.....	78
Activity 21: Reading for Understanding	78
Activity 22: Noticing Language— Vocabulary.....	79
Activity 23: Analyzing Stylistic Choices— Representing Relationships and Positions	80
Activity 24: Summarizing and Responding—Quickwrite.....	81
Activity 25: Thinking Critically— Defining “Personhood”	81
Activity 26: Reflecting on Your Reading Process	81

Activity 27: Considering the Writing Task—Letter to the Editor.....	82
Activity 28: Considering the Writing Task—Essay Assignment.....	83
Activity 29: Taking a Stance— Letter to the Editor.....	83
Activity 30: Taking a Stance (Animal Bill of Rights)	84
Activity 31: Trying on Words, Perspectives, and Ideas	85
Activity 32: Gathering Evidence to Support Your Claims	85
Activity 33: Quote, Paraphrase, and Respond.....	86
Activity 34: Getting Ready to Write	86
Activity 35: Composing a Draft.....	86
Activity 36: Considering Structure	87
Activity 37: Using the Words of Others	88
Activity 38: Negotiating Voices.....	88
Activity 39: Revising Rhetorically.....	89
Activity 40: Considering Stylistic Choices	89
Activity 41: Editing the Draft.....	90
Activity 42: Responding to Feedback.....	91
Activity 43: Reflecting on Your Writing Process.....	92

Rhetorical Grammar: Teacher Version

Guided Composition

Guided Composition.....	94
-------------------------	----

Rhetorical Grammar Instruction

Correcting Run-On Sentences.....	96
Correcting Subject Verb Agreement.....	99
Sentence Combining	102

Editing Student Writing

Editing Student Writing	105
Editing Your Guided Composition.....	105
Editing Your Own Writing	106

Rhetorical Grammar: Student Version

Activity 1: Guided Composition.....	109
Activity 2: Correcting Run-On Sentences.....	110
Activity 3: Correcting Subject-Verb Agreement Errors.....	113
Activity 4: Sentence Combining	113
Activity 5: Editing Student Writing	115
Activity 6: Editing Your Guided Composition	116
Activity 7: Editing Your Own Writing	116