

Week of 8/6 – 8/10

Monday, August 6th

- Each day something will be on the board for you to do when you come into the room

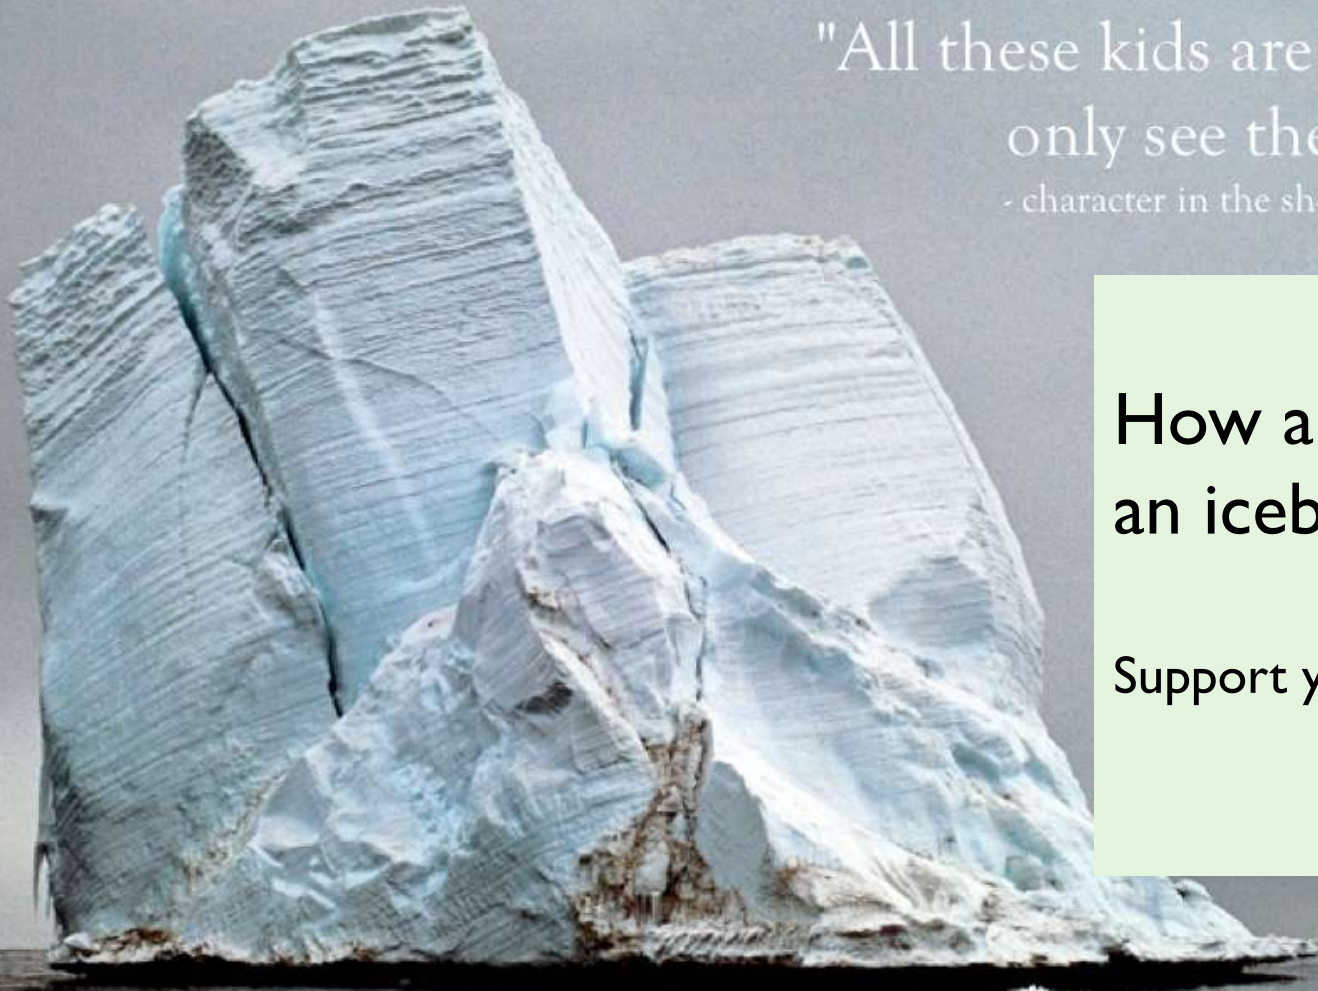

If you brought your composition book...

- Skip over 4 pages
- Write the date at the top and label the page “Bell Work”
- Complete the assignment

Monday, August 6th

"The dignity of movement of an iceberg is due to only one-eighth of it being above water." - Hemingway

"All these kids are icebergs, we only see the tip."
- character in the show Castle

How are you like an iceberg?

Support your answer.

Note Cards

Last, First

Parents' Names

Street Address

City, State Zip

Parents' Phone

Parents' Email (if you know it)

Sports/Activities (and position/number)

Activity: Two Truths and a Lie

NO TALKING!

Write a detailed paragraph about your summer. In it, include two things that really happened to you and one thing that didn't.

When everyone is done, you will read it while everyone else tries to guess the lie, so make your paragraph good.

Tuesday, August 7th

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOPQRSTUVWXYZ

A Accept differences.

B Before you leap, look.

C Consider the lobster.

D Don't think you're better than others.

E Enjoy life.

F Fix things.

Make a list of alphabetical advice.

Eats, Shoots & Leaves

Punctuation Takes a Vacation

Review Punctuation

Let's eat grandma!

Let's eat, grandma!

PUNCTUATION SAVES LIVES!

Flip Book

- Listen for directions

Wednesday, August 8th

Punctuation Review

- If you didn't complete your punctuation flip book, do so.
- If you did, Grammar Art

Grammar Name Art

On the first page in your composition book, write your name in large block or bubble letters.

- First letter write nouns that relate to you (common or proper nouns).
- Second letter with verbs that relate to you (action or linking verbs).
- Third letter with adjectives that describe you. Remaining letters you can choose to write more nouns, verbs, or adjectives.

Discovery Activity

- Listen for directions

Thursday, August 9th

If you could have any fictional character as a best friend, who would you choose? Why? What would that be like?

Library Thursday!

Friday, August 10th

PRETEND

THAT YOU ARE

IN YOUR 70s OR 80s.

COMPLAIN

ABOUT

KIDS THESE DAYS.