Name Clark Science Period Date	Due 9/26 NO FIX No FIX
	(p. 673 – 675) Ses. Notes/Pictures Vocab: eclipse, umbra, penumbra
When an object	's hits Earth or Earth's hits the moon, an eclipse occurs. in space comes between the sun and casts a on that object causing directly between from parts of Ea	ccurs when the passes Earth and the sun, blocking sunlight rth. Draw and label the picture on page 674 sunlight from rea	clipse, blocks aching the moon. Draw and label the picture on page 675
The very the umbra, is co	part of the moon's shadow, ne-shaped.
Thethe penumbra.	part of the shadow is called degrees with resusually the Mooor the Earth. At most shadows miss to Only about ever season, are con	The orbit of the Moon is tilted by about degrees with respect to the Earth's orbit, so that usually the Moon passes slightly or the line between the Sun and the Earth. At most New and full Moons, the shadows miss their mark and no eclipse occurs. Only about every six months, during an eclipse the season, are conditions right for a lunar or solar eclipse. Draw and label the picture from PPT
Summary (6 sentences using 3 vocabulary words, definitions, and examples and vocab cards.)
When an object in space comes between the sun and a third object, it casts a on that object causing an passes directly between Earth and the sun, blocking sunlight from parts of Earth. During a lunar eclipse, blocks sunlight from reaching the moon The very part of the moon's shadow, the umbra, is cone-shaped. The part of the shadow is called the penumbra. There is not an eclipse every month because		