

Creative Writing

Prerequisite: 10, 11, & 12 Language Arts

This course is for students who are interested in developing their creative writing skills. They will have an opportunity to investigate their ideas and opinions about the world and to express them in powerful, effective language. Students read and write poems, plays, short stories, and autobiographies to discover the characteristics of literary forms.