

- Kris deposited 320 coins into a coin-counting machine and received $60.50. All of the coins she had saved were dimes and quarters.

a. Write a system of linear equations in which one equation expresses the condition about the number of coins that Kris deposited, and the other relates the numbers of dimes and quarters to the total value of the money deposited.