Family & Children's Aid

75 West St., Danbury CT 6810

203-748-5689

www.fcaweb.org

Services Provided: Positive Parenting Program: Provides support, information, and parenting skills development for families at high risk of child abuse and neglect. Weekly home visits help parents develop positive discipline, improve parent-child relationships, and improve household management. These contribute to the parent's ability to provide for the emotional, physical, and psychological needs of their children.

Reconnecting Families: The program is designed to expedite the reunification of children who are first-time removals from their homes as a result of a DCF investigation. The purpose is to educate the caregivers, supervise visits and reduce the amount of time a child is in placement.

IICAPS (Intensive In-Home Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Services): Provide in-home services to children and families where the child is either at risk of being placed out of the home, returning from a residential placement, being discharged from a psychiatric hospital, or who has had multiple outpatient interventions that have not been successful. IICAPS is in the home 5 to 8 hours a week and works with the child, family, school and community resources to maintain the child in the community.

Child First: Provides intensive in-home visitation services, care coordination, and mental health consultation to families with multiple challenges. Serves prenatal women and families with children up to age 5.

This Directory of Services for Danbury's Families is published by:

Danbury's Promise for Children Partnership

Our goal:

All Danbury children ages birth through eight are healthy and ready for school and lifelong learning.

We are working to achieve our goal through a broad community partnership that works through three teams:

- Health Awareness and Actions
- Parenting That Supports Healthy Development and Learning
- Readiness for School and School Success

For more information on how to get involved, or for more information on how to obtain copies of this Directory, email Caroline LaFleur at caroline.lafleur@uwwesternct.org or call 203-300-1486.

This Directory is also available online at
