Chapter one: The Hat of Never Ending

Tuesday morning 5:30am

Beep beep Beeps goes Ryan's alarm clock. She woke up and ate breakfast and she was all ready for school. She went to school and everyone was grumpy but her. She tried to ask her friend, but even she was grumpy. She went to her first class and Mr. Roger was so grumpy. He almost gave everyone detention, but luckily the bell rang before he did. Ryan walked to her next class, and Mrs. Marten was grumpy too. After school Ryan was still wondering what was going on.

She texted her mom "Hi:)."

All Ryan's mom texted back is "Stop texting i'm busy."

Ryan writes in her journal "Tuesday afternoon 2:55 weird things have been going on at school everyone appears to be grumpy even the teachers it seems as if i'm the only one not grumpy"

Wednesday afternoon 3:00 pm

Ryan lay flat on her bed waiting for something to do. Her Brother walked in and then her phone started buzzing. She picked it up.

Her brother sat on her bed and asked, "Who is it? Just tell me."

She ignored him and walked outside down a trail. Then she heard someone behind her, but she thought it's just someone taking a walk because it's a public trail. She looked back and saw brief glimpses of a guy in a black hat and suit. Then he would disappear again.

Suddenly to her right, a creepy card guy popped out of the trees and scared Ryan. She blinked and rubbed her eyes making sure she was seeing things correctly. There was a three foot tall playing card with arms, legs, and a head. It ran straight at her and grabbed her. She screamed as the creepy card guy pulled Ryan through the forest! She saw a brick wall, so she closed her eyes.

The creepy card guy pulled her through the brick wall! She opened her eyes and saw a whole new world. It was brighter and more open with no trees. Clouds shaped like dice, rabbits, and other magical items floated above them. The ground was no longer dirt and grass. It was a strange felt material. Ryan was still startled.

The creepy card guy said, "It's not me you should be scared of, it's the magician."

"Wait, who's the magician and where am I?"

The creepy card guy said, "The Magician was the guy following you down the trail. He cast a spell on everyone and it makes people grumpy. You are the only human that doesn't have it and we are in Magic Land!"

"Oh that makes more sense.. oh, and another question, who are you?" asked Ryan.

“Oh yeah, I forgot to introduce myself, I am Ace Heart.”

Ryan looked around and saw something big and black in the distance she also heard things falling. Her eyes focused more and she realized it is a hat.

Ryan asked Ace while they walked, “What is that big hat right there and where are we going?”

“It’s the hat of Never ending! Dun dun dun! Unless you want to be trapped in here forever or get caught by the magician we must hurry.”

They walked to the edge of the hat trying to look in. However, the edge was super slippery and they fell in! They were falling for a while when Ryan thought she saw some things were stuck on the wall. She got an idea and it was to climb on the things stuck to the wall. They both made it out.

They needed a minute to breathe, so they sat there for a while. Then, Ryan looked down at her leg and saw blood. Ryan told Ace and he gave her a cloth towel that got stuck to him when they fell into the Hat of Never Ending.

Ryan said, “Thanks.”

Ace replied, “You’re welcome!”

Ryan tied it around her leg.

Chapter 2: The Cliff of Magic

After Ryan tied it completely around her leg. she stood up. Ace said, "Next stop The Cliff of Magic."

They started walking. Once they got closer, Ryan turned around and saw the Magician

Ryan said, "We have a problem!"

Ace looked back and saw the Magician following them.

Ace responded, "Run!"

Both sprinted forward. Before not too long they were at the edge of the cliff.

Ace yelled, "Jump!"

Ryan replied, "What are you crazy!?"

"Just do it!"

Ace jumped and so did Ryan. Ace grabbed onto a stick that grew into the wall. Magician looked down and didn't see anyone, so he left. Ace and Ryan heard cracking and noticed the stick was breaking!

"Ahhhhh!" yelled Ryan and Ace at the same time.

Out of nowhere, a large dog with wings came flying over and caught them in midair on his back. He could barely hold their weight. He furiously flapped his wings with all his might.

Once they got up, Ryan looked at the collar and it said: Pharo. Pharo whined in different tones and it almost seemed like a song.

Ace said, "That means he was always scared to fly so that was his first time!"

They got up and looked around. They heard talking but didn't see anybody

Ace said, "Wow we are lucky!"

Ryan responded, "yeah, we are."

Ace said, "Wait, so where are we now?"

Ryan replied, "I don't know."

They started walking on a stone path. Then randomly, the path stopped at a brick wall. Everyone was confused, but then Ryan got out her phone and leaned on the wall. Right when she put her foot up, the wall opened...

Chapter 3: The Card Tower

They walked in and the first thing they saw was guards that looked just like Ace, except they were jacks. There was a guard on each side of the huge castle.

One guard asked, "Who are you?"

The other one asked, "And why are you here?"

Nervously, Ryan said, "We are just some people trying to find our way home."

The guards looked at each other. Then they stepped forward and tried to grab them. "By the order of the queen and the great magician you are hereby our prisoners."

Ryan ran and so did Ace. Pharoe just flew. Ryan realized that there are thorn bushes on each side of the castle that prevented them from getting away from the it! Pharoe looked down and saw the thorn bushes. He swooped down and grabbed Ryan. Then he quickly got Ace! Everyone noticed how he could hold way more weight because he had more practice flying. The magician spotted them while he was visiting the queen in one of the tallest towers.

He yelled, "Get them you imbeciles!"
