at the 2018 Olympics

A collection of student work displayed on the poster. It includes three rows of circular medals with white loops, each containing a student's name and a short paragraph. The top row has five gold medals, the middle row has five silver medals, and the bottom row has five bronze medals. Below the medals is a row of white, scalloped-edged shapes representing a crowd. At the very bottom, there is a collage of small photographs showing athletes in action and spectators.
