Mississippi Library Commission

Adult SLP?

- This is just like much of the programming that you offer throughout the year – the difference is that it focuses on the annual theme.
- How do you “Build a Better World?”

Adult Incentives

- Are they necessary?
- What has appeal to local adults?

Programming

- Active
- Passive

In the Community

- Repurpose – pallets, concrete blocks
- Recycling
- Support local businesses

Programming idea ...

Identify groups that support the free exchange of unwanted, but working items.

- There are online groups like Nextdoor and Craigslist
- Think about promoting barter in your community - Could your library host a swap?

Throughout the Country

Throughout the Country

- Support national organizations
- Educate yourself about state and national politics
- Watch national news programs
- Explore ways that your state contributed to the building of the US
- Investigate the contributions of minorities to the growth and well being of the US

Around the Globe

- Micro economics (micro loans)
- Buy from people, not companies
- Educate yourself about different countries & cultures
- Make friends with people from other countries
- Watch international news

Movies

- Don't show movies to the public unless you have the necessary movie license. This is discussed on page 12 of the manual!
- You can develop a program using movie titles available from the library - create a list of titles held locally that explore other countries and cultures.

Local Events & Groups

- What is happening locally that could help you have a great program?
- Are there any local groups that help you get a global or multicultural feel to your adult programming?
