Assignment Part #1	30 lessons=2 credits	Due: May 15
Assignment Part #2	45 lessons=3 credits	Due: May 15

Distance Learning: "The Road" by Cormac McCarthy

Instructions

Assignment Part 1:

A. Imagine that you find yourself in a situation like the man and his son in The Road. If you survived a terrible disaster that wiped out most of the world's population, what would your initial reactions be? What would you see? What would you think, feel, and do? Respond to the prompts below in at least 3-5 complete sentences. Use the back of the assignment sheet or binder paper if needed.

What disaster wiped out most of the world's population? How did it happen? Was anyone to blame?
What were your initial reactions in the minutes, hours or days immediately after the disaster?
What do you see when you look around you?
What do you feel?
What do you do? What do you need to do?
Who are you with? What are they thinking and feeling?
What supplies will you gather? How will you gather them? Where will you gather them from?
What dangers do you face?

B. Vocabulary: Use a dictionary (paper or online) of	or context clues from the excerpt to define the bold words.
The Road tells the story of a father and son trying to survive after an apocalyptic event.
They left the cart in a gully .
They left the cart in a guny.
Wrapped in blankets, watching the nameless dark come to enshroud them.
The city vanished in the night's onset like an apparition .
The lamp in the rocks on the side of the hill was little more than a mote of light.
On the outskirts of the city they came to a supermarket.
They were wrinkled effigies of themselves.
In the livingroom the bones of a small animal dismembered and placed in a pile.
