EHS Language Arts Course Offerings

Required Courses

Ninth Grade – English I

Tenth Grade – English II

Eleventh Grade – English III

Twelfth Grade – English IV

Placement into levels is based on students' final grade in the previous course.

Advanced Placement®

Courses designated as Advanced Placement® * (AP®)/College coursework are intended for the most able and motivated members of the student body.

Taught under guidelines established by The College Board, AP® courses are college-level offerings.

Students enrolled in AP® courses will be challenged at the highest level of academic difficulty available in a high school setting.

* AP® and Advanced Placement® are registered trademarks of the College Board. Used with permission.

Descriptor for Honors

A student who is self-motivated, can think critically and is an independent learner should succeed at this academic level.

Students are expected to read extensively and then apply and synthesize the information.

Students are also expected to be able to write multi-paragraph pieces of narrative and expository writing.

Prerequisites are listed in the curriculum guide.

Descriptor for CCP

College and career preparatory courses are intended to develop in students the skill sets and content knowledge needed to pursue a variety of college and career options beyond high school.

Students are expected to engage in a rigorous sequence of learning at this level that will develop reasoning and communication skills while learning required content.

Elective Courses

- Advanced Placement Literature/Composition (meets 12th grade, English IV requirement)
- Advanced Placement Language & Composition (meets 11th grade, English III requirement)

- Journalism
- Mythology
- Public Speaking
- Tomorrow's Teachers (Honors Level: juniors and seniors only)

Programs Available Through the English Department

Aspirations (all grades)

This is a literary/art magazine published each year by Mercer County Community College. The college invites high school students to participate in this competition.

The college hosts a recognition program every year.

Frescoes (all grades)

This is the Ewing High School art and literary magazine. Students are encouraged to submit short stories, poetry, essays, and other writings. This magazine is published at the end of the school year.

Ewing's Voice (all grades)

Students with an interest in journalism are invited to participate in writing for the school newspaper. Students who enroll in Journalism class assume the responsibility of writing, publishing, formatting, and distributing this school newspaper.
