Distance Learning: Encyclopedia Of My Life

39 lessons = 2.6 credits

- Students will be able to: Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
- Students will be able to: Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing.
- Students will be able to: Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to the task, purpose, and audience.

Instructions

- Relate each letter of the alphabet to your life in some way.
- Write a paragraph of at least 5 sentences.
- Use correct grammar and spelling.

For harder letters (for example: x, u, z)—look at a dictionary for inspiration, be creative, or as a last result, connect it to a word that starts with the same sound (excellent for x, you for u).

Example Encyclopedia Entry: H is for horse.

I was 29 when I learned how to ride a horse. Within months of my first riding lesson I bought an off-the-track race horse. Eventually I got additional horses. In fact, I became so hooked on horses that I went to horseshoeing school. That's what I did before becoming a teacher. I had my own business as a farrier (horseshoer).

Turning Work In Digitally

If possible, please turn this assignment in digitally. Doing so will allow me to give you credit more quickly, which will allow you to complete the course sooner and move on to a different subject.
