WELCOME TO THE FAMILY!

What do school counselors help you with?

- ★ Prepare you to graduate from High School
- ★ Select the appropriate course work that matches your future goals
- ★ Assist with preparing you for college and career choices
- ★ Learn good study habits
- ★ Personal and social issues

If you have any questions or just want to say hi – You are always welcome to stop by the counseling office during lunch!

Your School Counselors will always be there to support you, but you also have another support that is here for you.

COPING SKILLS FOR STRESS AND ANXIETY

Mrs. Tran is the Intervention Counselor. She assists in coordinating support groups to help students with a variety of issues.

- Drug and Alcohol Counseling
- Anger Management
- Grief and Loss
- Family Support
- And more!

Your counselor can help you make an appointment to see her.

BE PRESENT

I want you to let yourself be here, in this moment in time.

Today's Objective

KEEP
AND
ON

- Students will reflect on the topic of self awareness and how it ties into their strengths.
- Students will discover their strengths and interests and how they relate to their postsecondary goals.
- Students will evaluate two to three careers resulting from their assessment in the CCGI Career Interest Profiler.
- Students will learn about the graduation and college admission requirements.
- Students will learn the importance of participating in school activities/programs.

How to be successful in High School

Follow these steps

- Attend all your classes! You will not learn if you miss class.
- Be organized by using your student planner.
- Complete and turn in your homework.
- Visit student connect daily for updates or assignments from your teachers.
- Obtain weekly progress reports from the counseling office to keep yourself on track if needed.
- If you are still confused or not sure where to start, see your counselor for assistance.
