

Reading

Reading Questions

1. The text says Muhammad was believed to have been illiterate (unable to read and write) but that he “understood the importance of words and stories.” How do you think Muhammad might have gained this understanding during his time among the Bedouins? Provide evidence from the text.

2. Type two sentences comparing two different features of the lives of children in Muhammad’s time to your life today.

First Sentence:

Second Sentence:

3. How did Muhammad’s life in Mecca differ from his life among the Bedouins?
