

Name: _____

Date: _____

2.1

Poets use repetition for different reasons. Sometimes they want to stress an important thought or point. Sometimes they want to repeat certain letters or sounds, as in rhyming words, to make their poem sound pleasing.

- Once you have completed the previous chart, use the words on each line to form a question. Try to make each one a question that you find interesting. You may revise the chart if you wish. Type your questions on the lines below.
