5. In the final stanza, the narrator says she felt anticipation about visiting the library. Using the third-person, type a sentence that describes, in your own words, how the narrator felt when she was at the library.

6. When you read Nikki Giovanni's biography, you were asked to think about how she might have felt about libraries and librarians when she was younger. Based on your answers to questions 4 and 5, does the poem show Giovanni feeling the way you expected? Explain your answer.

7. In the next-to-last line of the poem, the speaker calls the library's books "another world." How can books be like another world?
