5. Now type any other details you can remember about this experience. These could include how the place feels, how the place smells, or any other special detail that you remember and want to include.

5a. _____

5b. _____

5c. _____

5d. _____

If you've answered all the questions, that's great! If you haven't, remember that care matters more than speed.

Later in the poetry units you'll use this exercise as the starting point for a poem about your memory. To write a strong poem, you'll need to have lots of information, so make sure this is as complete as possible. If you remember other details later, you should add them. Think of all the details Giovanni used to help make her description memorable; try to do the same in your own work.
