Activity Page

P.P.2

Name: ___

Date: _____

This poem is about a physical object—the Statue of Liberty. It is also about a symbol—what the statue means to people. Choose another physical object that means something to you, or others, and type a poem about it. If you wish you may use one of the devices you learned about—anaphora, alliteration, or figurative language—in your poem.

