

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Relative Pronouns

Relative Pronoun	Use
who	refers to or replaces subject
whom	refers to or replaces object
whose	indicates possession

Read each pair of sentences. Then, combine each pair of sentences into one sentence, using the appropriate relative pronoun. Be sure to use correct capitalization and punctuation.

Example: Tom is in my class. I borrowed Tom’s book.

Tom whose book I borrowed is in my class.

1. I asked Elizabeth for a pen. I sit next to Elizabeth in class.

2. My neighbor’s flowers are pretty. My neighbor loves to garden.

3. My brother likes to tell jokes. My brother is funny.

4. I gave the tourist directions. The tourist was lost.

5. My sister is smart. My sister works at the library.
