

4-1 – Articles of Confederation- Pages 114-119

Essential Question: How did the Articles of Confederation provided a framework for a national government?

Main Idea 1:

The American people examined many ideas about government.

- _____ laws that _____ the power of the _____ were the Magna Carta and the _____ of _____.
- The Magna Carta was a _____ that _____ British royalty to _____ the same _____ as other _____ people.
- The Magna Carta influenced _____ leaders when they were considering the _____ of their _____.
- It showed that it was _____ to _____ the powers of _____.
- The _____ was a philosophical movement that emphasized the use of _____ to examine old _____ and _____.
- _____ believed a social _____ existed between political _____ and the people they _____.

American Models of Government

- Early models of _____ - _____ were town _____, the Virginia House of Burgesses, and the _____.
- Each _____ of the states _____ government and _____ rights of citizens.
- _____ ideas on religious _____ were written in the Virginia Statute for Religious _____.
- The Virginia Statute for _____ Freedom declared that no _____ could be _____ to attend _____ or to _____ for a church with _____.
- Many state constitutions provided _____, or the right to _____, to most white _____ who paid _____.

Main Idea 2:

The Articles of Confederation laid the base for the first national government of the United States.

- The _____ influenced the Articles of Confederation.
- The Declaration of Independence _____ the _____ of the British _____ over the _____, which was _____ in the creation of a _____ government in the _____.
- The Articles of Confederation created a _____ government with _____ powers.
 - _____ could settle conflicts among _____, make _____, borrow money, ask states for money and soldiers, and make _____ with other nations.
 - _____ had the power to _____ requests.
 - There was no _____ or national _____.
- The _____ passed the Articles of Confederation on November 15, 1777, and sent them to each _____ for _____.
- The first _____ government of the United States was _____ after the last state _____ the Articles in _____.

Main Idea 3:

The Confederation Congress established the Northwest Territory.

- Congress had to _____ what to do with the _____ lands under its _____.
- Passed the _____ of 1785 and the _____ of 1787.
- Congress passed _____ of 1785 to raise _____ to pay _____.
- Ordinance provided for _____ and dividing _____ lands
- Land was _____ into _____.
- Each _____ was _____ into lots for sale to the _____.
- Congress passed _____ of 1787
- Established _____ and a system for creating new _____
- Included what are now the states of _____, Indiana, _____, Illinois, _____, and _____
- Required the provision of public _____ and banned _____
- Changes that the _____ of 1787 made to _____ were _____.
- Established a _____ for _____ in future _____ of the United States.
- The Northwest Ordinance of 1787 established a _____ for _____ in _____ territories of the United States.
- The _____ of _____ in some state _____ was the beginning of the _____ movement.