

Grade K Introduction

It is essential to administer End-of-Year (EOY) Assessments to students even if students have not completed all units of the CKLA program for the school year. Assessment results measure student progress and help inform summer school instruction and placement in the Skills Strand for the next school year. K Lessons that feature EOY assessment also have lesson content for teaching and review, with time to assess built in. You can find Information on interpreting assessment results on pages 147 - 148 of Unit 10 Teacher Guide.
