- Most courses are one-unit courses. Yearlong courses award credit at the end of the year, and traditional block courses award credit at the end of the 18-week course. Only a few electives award half-units of credit.

- Check course descriptions for prerequisites.

- Courses in a sequence (such as French I, II, III and IV) require that you pass the previous course before taking the higher level course unless otherwise specified.

- Courses listed in purple are available at the Career Center (CC) only.
