Friedman, Laurie B.	Mallory Goes Green (Series) Mallory is on the Fern Falls Elementary School Environmental Committee, which is selecting class projects for the Green Fair. After being a little too aggressive with her attempts to make her friends and family more aware of conserving energy, she becomes more open to others' suggestions.
Greene, Constance	Owen Foote, Mighty Scientist (Series) Owen can't get enough of lizards. He loves weird animals that look exotic and dangerous, and he wants desperately to win the science fair project with his best friend, Joseph. The trouble is, Joseph feels queasy around the slimy creatures.
Haddix, Margaret Peterson	Dexter the Tough Michael Jordan, an ironically named sixth grader, is the shortest kid in sixth grade. Michael frets about his height, falls for a girl who likes his older brother and resents having to keep a journal for language arts.
Harper, Charise	Just Grace (Series) Third-grader Grace loves cats, including the one that belongs to her intimidating neighbor, Mrs. Luther. When Mrs. Luther's cat goes missing, Grace is determined to find it, even if that means joining forces with a boy she doesn't like.
Hermes, Patricia	Emma Dilemma Series) Emma tries to help her parents understand that, although their beloved new nanny has made a few mistakes, no one can behave perfectly responsibly all the time.
Holt, Kimberly Willis	Piper Reed Gets a Job (Series) After learning how much it would cost to buy a clubhouse for their Gypsy Club members, Piper decides to start a party-planning business. However, she soon learns that it is a more difficult task that she anticipated.
Kerrin, Jessica	Martin Bridge on the Look Out Poor Martin tries his best, but calamities small and large seem to follow him everywhere. In three lively short stories, Martin hilariously gets himself in and out of trouble at home and in school.

McDonald, Megan	Judy Moody Declares Independence (Series) Stink (Series) Judy Moody knows a lot about the American Revolution and is excited when her family takes a trip to Boston to visit the main sites along the Freedom Trail. The third-grader makes friends with a girl from England and gets a bit of the British perspective as well as a pen-pal relationship.
Pennypacker, Sara	Clementine (Read other titles by this author) Eight-year-old Clementine does not always think before she acts and when she realizes she may be the difficult child in her family, she does anything to prove them wrong.
Staples, Suzanne Fisher	The Green Dog: A Mostly True Story Suzanne, an imaginative child, prefers the company of animals to most people. Anyone who always wanted a dog will identify with Suzanne whose dream comes true during the summer after her fourth grade year.
Van Draanen, Wendelen	Shredderman: Secret Identity (Series) Bubba has been the bane of Nolan's existence for five long years. So when Mr. Green asks the class to become reporters, Nolan decides he'll write an exposé--on Bubba. He doesn't want to sign his name to it (that'd be suicidal), so Nolan creates a secret identity for himself--on the Internet. He launches Shredderman.com as a place where truth and justice prevail--and bullies get what's coming to them.
Wojciechowski, Susan	Beany and the Meany (Series) Kevin is the meanest kid in class, and Beany is a little bit afraid of him. Then, her best friend picks the new girl to be her partner for the science fair, and Beany gets stuck with Kevin. She is worried, but, with their teacher's help, she and Kevin learn to work together.
