Amherst County Public Schools
Every Child Every Day

Teacher Notes

ACPS will utilize a theme approach to integrate the English strands of reading, writing, research, and communication. To the extent possible, a variety of genres should be utilized during a unit of study. Best practices include:

- Paired texts (Paired texts can include books, plays, articles, poems, functional text, graphics, or digital media)
- Use of text-dependent questions (QAR)
- Use of inference questions (QAR)
- Use of text-based vocabulary
- Writing components in every lesson
- Frequent research components

ACPS Literacy Plan outlines seven comprehension strategies that will be incorporated during units of study throughout the reading process. “Strategies are conscious, flexible plans a reader applies to a variety of texts, both narrative and expository. The use of strategies implies awareness, reflection, and interaction between the reader and the author. Strategies do not operate individually or sequentially, but are interrelated and recursive. The goal is the active construction of meaning and the ability to adapt strategies to varying reading demands.” (Vogt & Verga, 1998) Explicit teaching and modeling of the strategies is necessary to assist students in learning to use them independently to make sense of the text they encounter.

- Monitoring Comprehension/Metacognition
- Predicting/Activating Background Knowledge/Schema
- Questioning
- Visualizing
- Determining Importance
- Summarizing & Synthesizing
- Inferring

ACPS utilizes Thinking Maps in order for students to create mental visual patterns for thinking based on the fundamental thinking processes.

The following are examples of reading skills associated with each of the maps. These can be expanded upon based on teacher discretion.

Predictions	Summarizing (Story Elements, BME, Problem/Solution, Main Idea/Details, etc.)	Making Connections	Ask/Answer Questions

Character Analysis	Fact & Opinion	Context Clues	Author's Purpose

Vocabulary (Affixes, Compound Words, Phonics, Homophones, Synonyms/Antonyms)	Multi-Meaning Words	Locate Information	Cause & Effect

Content Knowledge for Implementation of the Standards

(taken from 2010 VDOE English Curriculum Framework)

Authorship - Who constructed the message?

Format - This is not just the medium being used, but also how the creators used specific elements for effect, i.e., color, sound, emphasis on certain words, amateur video, kids' voices.

Audience - Who is the person or persons meant to see the message? How will different people see the message?

Content - This is not just the visible content but the embedded content as well which includes underlying assumptions of values or points of view; facts and opinions may be intermixed.

Purpose - Why is the message being sent—is it meant to persuade, inform, entertain, sell, or a combination of these?

Auditory media can be heard (e.g., music, radio shows, podcasts).

Visual media can be viewed (e.g., television, video, Web-based materials, print ads).

Written media includes text (e.g., newspapers, magazines, books, blogs).

Close-up - only shows part of a subject usually in great detail.

Long shot - often establishes the scene (car driving up to a hotel or an overview of a city).

Medium shot shows the whole subject (a person, car etc.).

Simile – figures of speech that use the words like or as to make comparisons.

Hyperbole – intentionally exaggerated figures of speech.

Metaphor – a comparison equating two or more unlike things without using “like” or “as.”

Imagery is the use of words to recreate sensory impressions. Verbal imagery is most often visual, but imagery may also be words that recreate sound, smell, taste, or touch impressions.

Haiku – a 17-syllable, delicate, unrhymed Japanese verse, usually about nature.

Limerick – a 5-line, rhymed, rhythmic verse, usually humorous.

Ballad – a songlike narrative poem, usually featuring rhyme, rhythm, and refrain.

Free verse – poetry with neither regular meter nor rhyme scheme.

Rhyme – recurring identical or similar final word sounds within or at the ends of lines of verse, e.g., farm/harm.

Rhythm – the recurring pattern of strong and weak syllabic stresses.

Repetition – repeated use of sounds, words, or ideas for effect and emphasis.

Alliteration – repetition of initial sounds, e.g., picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Onomatopoeia – the use of a word whose sound suggests its meaning, e.g., buzz.

Definitions – which define words within the text.

Signal words – which alert readers that explanations or examples follow.

Direct explanations – which explain terms as they are introduced.

Synonyms – which provide a more commonly used term.

Antonyms – which contrast words with their opposites.

Inferences – which imply meaning and help readers deduce meaning.

Composing – the structuring and elaborating a writer does to construct an effective message for readers.

Written expression – those features that show the writer purposefully shaping and controlling language to affect readers.

Usage/mechanics – the features that cause written language to be acceptable and effective for standard discourse.

Voice shows an author’s personality, awareness of audience, and passion for his or her subject. It adds liveliness and energy to writing.

Tone is used to express an author’s attitude toward the topic.

Modifier – an adjective, an adverb, or a phrase or clause acting as an adjective or adverb.

Coordination – joining words, phrases, clauses, or sentences by using appropriate coordinating conjunctions.

Subordination – establishing the relationship between an independent and a dependent clause by using appropriate subordinate conjunctions.

Indefinite pronouns refer to a person(s) or thing(s) not specifically named and include all, any, anyone, both, each, either, everybody, many, none, nothing.

Primary source - is an original document or a firsthand or eyewitness account of an event.

Secondary source - discusses information originally presented somewhere else. Secondary sources provide analysis, interpretation, or evaluation of the original information.

The VDOE Curriculum Framework should be utilized when preparing units found in this curriculum map.
